

On the occasion of the International Holocaust Remembrance Day a new temporary exhibition Ghettos Beyond Budapest - „... none of them will be spared here” will be opened on the gallery of the synagogue of the Holocaust Memorial Center.

Prior to the opening of the exhibition, violinist Isabelle Durin will interpret best-known themes from films dealing with the topic. The concert is co-organized by the French Institute in Budapest.

Date: January 27, 2022, 6 p.m.

Location: Budapest, 39 Páva Street

In compliance with the epidemiological regulations, the number of participants will be limited. Please indicate your intention to participate on the website of the Holocaust Memorial Center by January 18, 2022 (hdke.hu/hirek/2022-emleknap).