

VÁGYOTT VILÁGOK

The Holocaust Memorial Center in Budapest cordially invites you to the opening ceremony of the temporary exhibition

Desired Worlds, Jewish Middle-Class Worlds in Győr between 1867 and 1944

Industrial modernization played an important role in the development of Győr's urban self-image in the last third of the 19th century. It influenced greatly the self-identity of the Győr middle class Jewry as well. Their belonging to the civil society was expressed through various symbolic cultural phenomena. This exhibition recalls a bourgeois Jewish lifestyle in Győr which was ended abruptly by the Shoah, a change that caused irreversible transformation in the city.

Programme:

Opening speech by dr. Andor Grósz,
Chairman of the Board of the Holocaust Memorial Center
The exhibition will be opened by Vince Szalay-Bobrovniczky,
