

INVITATION

THE HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL CENTER CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO THE OPENING CEREMONY OF ITS NEW TEMPORARY EXHIBITION ENTITLED

THROUGH MEMORY NARRATIVES AND MEMOIRS OF THE ROMA HOLOCAUST

Illustration on the invitation: János Horváth's work titled "On the Road"

For a long time, the memory of the Roma Holocaust remained on the margins of social and institutional memory. Not only was the processing of the trauma delayed, but the historical fact itself was long silenced and invisible, so that remembrance could only become public in a delayed and fragmented way.

Our new temporary exhibition focuses on this process of memory, based on the results of comprehensive anthropological research. Through personal stories, community memory practices, documents, objects, and contemporary visual reflections, the exhibition presents and visualizes the narratives and traces of the memory of the Roma Holocaust, showing how the past becomes a question of the present.

The exhibition guides visitors through a symbolic journey in an interactive format, encouraging active participation in the process of remembrance. With documentary authenticity and artistic tools, the exhibition invites dialogue about the past, the present, and the social responsibility of memory.
