INVITATION

The Holocaust Memorial Center and the Women in the Holocaust International Study Center cordially invites you to

Across Borders: Women in the Holocaust in Central and Eastern Europe: History, Arts, and Memory
The FIFTH Annual International WHISC Conference

The Nazis' policy of extermination held the same fate in store for both genders, yet women and men experienced the Holocaust differently. This year's conference aims to explore, through a multidisciplinary approach, the lives, actions, and legacies of women during the Holocaust and World War II, highlighting various aspects of survival through their stories. The conference aims to bring together historians, as well as researchers and experts working in the fields of history, literature, the arts, and Holocaust remembrance.

Date
11-12 November, 2026.

Location
Holocaust Memorial Center
1094 Budapest, 39 Páva street

The conference will be held in English with Hungarian interpretation.

Please RVSP by 10 November, 2026
